On the Preferences page you can set which links appear on the home page, as well as other preferences. These settings persist from session to session for one year, so that common selections are already made when you connect. To change your home branch for login: go to Preferences > Library and select from the drop down list.

MCLINC Mobile users must log on to their patron accounts to place hold requests or access account information. Our mobile site accepts usernames or library barcodes. If you do not have a username, click the link to create one. If you have forgotten your password, click the Forgot Password link to retrieve it.

Once logged on, you remain logged on until you deliberately log out, disconnect from our mobile site, or are inactive for 20 minutes. While logged on, a Log Out link is available on every page.

The Remember me check box is available on the log-in screen by default. When you check this box and log on, the username or barcode you entered is preserved from session to session by a cookie on your mobile device. The next time you connect to MCLINC Mobile and choose to log on, the information is already filled in. The cookie expires after one month. You must always enter the password, and can choose to clear the Remember me check box.

Note: Some browsers may retain the user name or barcode regardless of the MCLINC Mobile Remember me feature, depending on auto-save, auto-fill or other settings in the browser.

Click My Account to view your account summary page.

The Items Out page lists all items currently checked out to you. When you click an item in the Items Out list, detailed information about the item is displayed. To renew items select the appropriate check box(es) and click Renew. If the renewal is allowed, a message with the new due date appears. If the renewal fails, an appropriate message appears.
